MEMO ENDORSED

RE: Huzhou Chuangtai Rongyuan Investment Management Partnership et al v. Qin;
No. 1:24-cv-02219-KPF
Request of Liu Defendants to Seal Documents

Dear Judge Failla:

Pursuant to Section 9(c)(ii) of Your Honor's Individual Rules of Practice in Civil Cases), we write to respectfully request that the Court permit the sealing of Exhibit A to the Defendant Emma "Duo" Liu ("Ms. Liu") and the Company Defendants (collectively, the "Liu Defendants") Opposition to Huzhou's Request for an Extension of Time to Post Bond (filed contemporaneously herewith).

A party seeking to file a document under seal needs to address the presumption in favor of public access to judicial documents. See, e.g., Lugosch v. Pyramid Co. of Onondaga, 435 F.3d 110, 119-20 (2d Cir. 2006). And any redaction or sealing of a court filing needs to be narrowly tailored to serve whatever purpose justifies the redaction or sealing and must be otherwise consistent with the presumption in favor of public access to judicial documents. Id.

The Court must balance this common law presumption of access against competing interests, including "the privacy interests of those resisting disclosure." Lugosch, 435 F.3d at 120 (quoting United States v. Amodeo, 71 F.3d 1044, 1050 (2d Cir. 1995)). Thus, the issue is whether "the privacy interests of the [moving party] outweigh the presumption of public access." GoSMiLE, 769 F. Supp. 2d at 649-50.

Given the nature of this matter (a private matter ultimately related to Plaintiffs' attempts to collect a judgment from Mr. Qin) and the fact that Ms. Liu is not the actual judgment-debtor, but merely a party whose private affairs are being dragged into this dispute, and given the ongoing criminal investigation about which the Court has been informed, we submit that there is a more than sufficient basis to seal the documents referenced herein. These documents contain confidential information of the kind that is deserving of protection and restricting public access, and therefore Ms. Liu respectfully requests that the Court grant this request.
